THRIVING the HOLIDAYS

Fill your Holidays with Laughter & Love

Nurture your relationships to bring you the most joy in the holiday season. It takes time and dedication, but it can be done. Here are a few important tips to strengthen your connections with your children.

Listen: Listen and validate others thoughts and feelings.

Connect: Listening is the best way to connect. You can also connect by learning something new about your child every day.

Keep the Calm: If you bring up an issue choose the right place and time.

Support: We all need support and your children need it often. If you make a promise, keep it.

Appreciate: Sincerely show appreciation for your child every opportunity you get.

Love: Love is not a descriptive word: it is an action word. We DO love.

School clothing is now available through your Student QuickPay account
